LOSE ONE—WIN ONE

Old Hickory Ball Team went to Middleboro Saturday where they played the game by 13 to 14 in favor of Middleboro, but took their revenge Sunday at the Fair Grounds when they won nicely by a score of 5 to 3.

The Old Hickory boys are playing good ball and as the season advances we expect them to become top-notchers.

Saturday Old Hickory will play Edgewood, from near Stoney Fork, the game being called at 2:30 p. m. on the B. B. I. diamond, admission 25c. Be there and see a good game.

BEREA COLLEGE

All former students of Berea who desire to hear President Frost give his farewell address and see him for the last time as President of Berea College, should plan to come back at Commencement, June 5th, 1920. Also, the new president will be inducted into the duties of his office at that date. We will try to furnish accommodations for all who come, providing we have notice in time from those desiring to be present.

M. E. VAUGHN, Secretary.

CONGRESSMAN J. M. ROBINSON ON THE PEACE RESOLUTION

In an impassioned speech on the Peace Resolution as taken from the Congressional Record, Congressman J. M. Robinson strongly urged peace but not at the expense of the U. S. The following excerpt from his eloquent speech is well worth quoting: "The President under these war measures has as much or more power than any King or Emperor of any civilized country of the present age; and I am in favor of this declaration of peace, the repeal of these oppressive war-time measures, and a restoration of our commercial relations with the nations of the world."

LESS SUBSERVENCY—PERHAPS

Senator Underwood, of Alabama, has been elected Democratic leader of the Senate, succeeding Mr. Hitchcock, of Nebraska. The growing revolt against Presidential domination of the party in the Senate has long presaged the overthrow of Mr. Hitchcock, the mouthpiece of Mr. Wilson in the treaty fight. Mr. Underwood is a man of independent ideas, and has more than once evidenced a determination to vote for the good of the country rather than as the President dictated. His accession to power is in line with the anti-Wilson sentiment that is finding expression in the State primaries throughout the country.

PROCLAMATION

The Governor of Kentucky has issued the following Proclamation: The week of May 17 to May 22 is hereby set apart as "American Legion Week" in the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

During this week it is the purpose of the National and State Headquarters of the American Legion to make an energetic attempt to reach every soldier of the Great War for the purpose of enlisting him as a member of the American Legion.

I respectfully urge that every citizen co-operate in this movement give it publicity and that every soldier entitled by his service and sacrifice to participation in this order shall enroll himself as a member of this great American Association.

Signed—EDWIN P. MORROW,
Governor of Kentucky.

TUESDAY CLUB

The Tuesday Club met May 11th at the home of Mrs. James R. Tugle on High Street with fifteen members present. Response to roll call was items concerning "Dress" the topic of the day. After reports from the Secretary and Treasurer there was a business session. A course of study for next year was discussed. Definite plans will be made at the next and last business meeting of the year. The Club will take a course in Citizenship and Parliamentary Law during the summer which will be open to the public, under the efficient leadership of Mrs. Cromwell, of Frankfort.

Mrs. W. S. Hudson, as leader for the day, presented the following program:—

"Inaugural Dresses of Wives of Presidents," Mrs. John Hughes.

"Dress in Early History and the Present Time," Mrs. W. S. Hudson.

Several members appeared in costume—Mrs. Guy Dickinson in dress of 1880, carrying an immense hand-painted red fan about forty years old;—Mrs. G. M. Richards in an 1870 costume, wearing a very small hat of that period;—Mrs. Fred Burman, a 1906 coat;—Mrs. H. H. Owens, a beautiful jet and net cape fifty years old. Several gorgeous frocks of ancient design and make were on display. Each lady looked very quaint and charming in her old time costume and the fashion show proved quite a success.

As this was the last literary program of the season, a vote was taken for the program from which each member had received the most. The "Salvation Army" received the greatest number of votes, "Spiritualism" coming second.

The Club gladly welcomed the return of one of its charter members, Mrs. F. D. Sampson, who is again at home in Barbourville.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. F. D. Sampson, served a delicious ice and cake course.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Sawyer A. Smith, the Club's president.

G. VIOT SAUNDERS

Opens Commencement Season

Those who failed to accept the invitation to hear "The Fortune Hunter" in which G. Viot Saunders was presented by Miss Bertha J. Hawkins Wednesday night, certainly missed a treat. Mr. Saunders has an excellent stage presence, perfect aplomb, splendid voice and enunciation and must have a remarkable memory as the lengthy but interesting story flowed from his lips without a pause or break.

As an interpreter of characters he is good and his control over his facial muscles can only have been acquired before a locking glass. He imitated a soda fountain syphon and his various characters with an equal facility.

The making of innocent mirth in our somewhat drab world is a real gift which should be utilized.

HOORAY! THE RED WAGONS ARE COMING!

The town bill-boards and dead walls are proclaiming with pictorial eloquence that Saunders' Greater European Shows will visit Barbourville Friday, May 21st. The announcement is hailed with delight by the juvenile populace while some of the "older boys" are looking for their stray nephews and nieces, saying they will probably have to go and carry the children to see the animals. But down deep in their hearts they know they would not miss the big show if there were not a small boy within a thousand miles of Barbourville on show day.

The Great Sanger Show is visiting this section of the State for the first time, altho the big show is on its 28th season. The big tented attraction travels aboard its own special train of railroad cars and will come here from Jelico, Tenn. Many new and novel features will be seen with the show. Among them being the Nelson family of acrobats; the Siegrist-Silbon troupe of Aerialists; the Silverton trio of dancers on a lofty double wire and the Wirth family of equestrians. Sangers school of educated Shetland ponies, monkeys and dogs will also be seen along with a congress of twenty clowns.

There will be two performances, at 2 and 8 p. m., the doors opening an hour earlier. A concert of popular and operatic music will be given on the show grounds at 1 and 7 p. m. The town and surrounding country is heavily billed for the appearance of the big show and a record breaking crowd from the entire County is anticipated.

HER GAIN IS OUR LOSS

We feel that Knox County lost one of her most efficient workers when Mrs. Dora Calhoun accepted a position in the Northern part of the State as Rural Supervisor and Community Worker, with a salary of $1,500.00 per year and a three month's vacation.

But she will come back because, Once a Mountaineer, always One! However we wish her success. She deserves it.

THERE'S A REASON

For the law that requires banks throughout the United States to print at stated intervals a full and complete and accurate statement of the Bank's resources and liabilities. The reason is not that the officials of the State or the Nation shall be thus given an insight into the financial conditions of the bank, for the Government Bank Officials have made their investigations before the statement was prepared. They have gone into the bank's affairs with the most minute care, examined all of the notes and securities due the bank and have carefully scrutinized the bank's assets, and have been convinced that the affairs of the bank are in first class condition, else the statement would not be permitted to be prepared.

THE BANK'S STATEMENT

Is given to the public so that the public may see for itself just the condition of the institution. The amount of deposits, the amount of money borrowed by the bank on time loans, the amount deposited by savings depositors all are shown. Also all the bank's resources are shown, so that any man may read the statement and know just the condition of the bank.

OUR STATEMENT APPEARS IN THIS ISSUE

Read it and then come in and let us talk investment with you. We recommend U. S. Treasury Savings Certificates and Liberty Bonds. They are the safest investments we know of and pay fair interest.

AMERICANISM WON IN MASSACHUSETTS

The result of the balloting in Massachusetts to elect delegates to the national conventions is added proof of the anti-league of nations sentiment that has swept the country. The Republican delegates will be headed by Senator Lodge, the leader of the Senate reservationists, and the Democrats have chosen the slate of Senator Walsh who voted against and vigorously attacked the Wilsonian league when the fight was on in the Senate.

SCHOOL TEACHERS RECEPTION

Dr. W. C. Black delightfully entertained the teachers of our schools at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Black, on College St., last Saturday night.

Mrs. Black is a most gracious hostess and the spacious rooms were hospitably thrown open for music, contests and conversation such as all enjoy when a number of congenial people are together.

Delicious leas, cakes and mints were served in the dining room.

Mrs. H. H. Owens, Mrs. R. P. Black and Miss Gertrude Black most acceptably assisted the hostess during the evening.

THE MORNING CONCERT AT UNION COLLEGE

What has developed into a most popular function of more recent years in the large cities, is what is called the "morning concert." This is not held before noon, as one might imagine, but anywhere between the hours of 2:30 and 5:00 p. m. The distinctive term "morning" refers mostly to the style of clothing worn by the artists who are on the programme. The very greatest musicians of the world appear on such programmes, and the public have learned to appreciate the "morning" idea, as is evidenced by the crowds who attend such concerts in the cities.

At Union College this year, we propose to try one such concert, and we hope that the public of this community will show a desire to patronize this effort by being present on Wednesday, May 19th, at 3:30 p. m. in the College Auditorium, when an attractive programme, lasting only one hour, will be presented.

UNION COLLEGE SCORES

Union College scored heavily in Declamatory Contest held at Richmond last week, and also won nine out of fourteen medals at the track meet.

Everett Bailey won the Declamatory contest, Robert Blair won the pole vault and high jump, Raymond Overlay the 100 and 220 yards dash, Chesley Franklin the mile run, while Blair, Barker, Chesley Franklin and Dunbar landed the relay race.

Overlay made the 220 yards in 26 seconds, Franklin won the mile race by 100 yards and by his speed and staying powers largely helped to bring home the bacon in the relay race.

ON TO CORBIN

Avalanche of Shriners to Hit There on the 15th of May

Over 100 Candidates Assured

All the country round about Corbin is wondering what is coming off on the 15th and guesses have been made all the way from a Carnival to a Circus, but that goes to show that the people in this neck of the woods are sure that something extraordinary is going to happen in that place and they are truly correct about that. The only reason they cannot locate the exact name for it is because they never saw anything like it before and it will be some time before they fasten their lights on anything similar to it again. For, verily, the goose is cooked and the cats are loose and preparations have been made for a Shrine feast such as local Shriners never attended. On that day the old will become young again and out strip their grand children: the young will in turn jazz themselves dizzy and there will be one glorious mixture of fools, fun and fezzes. On all sides you will hear the triumphant shout: "Oh! Desert, where is thy dampness? Oh! Camel, where is thy kick." From 6 a. m. Saturday morning, the hour of the arrival of the Louisville Special, until 2 a. m. Sunday morn, the hour of its departure, every moment will be full of real Shriners and real Shrine stunts.

At 12:30 the parade starts. A regular Shrine Parade with the Kossair Band, their $18,000 costumes and these assisted by that line of hungry, moon eyed novices. The whole town will be in gala attire. All business houses will wear elaborate dress in honor of the occasion, while banners and flags will fill the streets. Corbin aims to do her part for the visiting nobles.

Then comes that ceremonial, staged as only Kossair can stage them. You nobles of Kossair know what that means to those shivering hosts of knowledge seekers that are awaiting without a hold of that rope. Some have expressed their desire for a good deal. They want their money's worth. The nobles from each town will please see to this for it is the desire of the committee that each man be satisfied when he leaves the hall after the ceremonial. An extra stage has been built out in the auditorium of the Majestic theatre and there is plenty of room. All can fall and not be in each others way while there will be ample room for breezing about when the sands get too warm.

Then have you heard about those minstrels? Took Louisville by storm. Ran three nights and two afternoons and then did not take care of the crowds. They are all coming to Corbin and with the original line. A tent has been secured for the occasion, but its capacity is limited. Two performances will be given, in the afternoon and night, but an early purchase of tickets is suggested. Seats will not be reserved until the doors are opened, first come, first served.

The mirth of the minstrel will be carried on into the street in the form of a jubilee. No favorites in this fracas. No one is out-side of the money. If you have a stunt, stage it. You will be given the opportunity. A band stand is now up in front of Sutherland's Drug Store and the streets will be cleaned. Extra lights will be provided and nothing will mar the night's jollification.

Brother, that's a mouthful of stuff but we mean to strut it. Noble from the sore footed, neck-rung, rib-jarred, leg-pulled, goat-riding novice to the Most August Potentate is going to say that it has been a day for Eastern Kentucky. You'll be talking about it from the chimney corner fifty years from now with your grand children around you. It will be bodily impressed on the "goats" and mentally forced on the rest and when the last wild Arab yell shall have died away amidst its echoes against the distant mountains and the last weary sojourner shall have pillowed his throbbing head against a friendly pillow, then, and only then, will the chipmunk come out again and this section go back to its normal course after a day of unprecedented fun and fellowship.

All that come will be taken care of. The hotels cannot hold the crowds, but private homes will be provided. No one will have to sleep

LADIES AID SOCIETY

The M. E. Ladies Aid Society held its regular meeting Friday afternoon May 7th, with sixteen members present who answered roll call with Bible verses about "Faith." The hostess, Mrs. Robert Corbette, read the Scripture lesson which was followed by the Lord's Prayer. After the Secretary's and Treasurer's reports there was a short business session. Volunteer offerings for foreign hospital use will be brought to the next meeting, May 21st, at the home of Mrs. James D. Black.

The following program was presented:—"The meaning of Faith and the Different kinds," Mrs. J. S. Miller. "Faith in Christ and the Foundation of Religion," Mrs. Edward Faulkner.

There was a general discussion by the members concerning "Faith," the Healer Hickson and a few of the different kinds of religion. The interesting program ended with singing the hymn, "My Faith Looks Up To Thee."

Delicious iced refreshments and cake were served.
